Unveiling India's Treasures: The Remarkable Contributions of the North Eastern States

This holiday, we invite you to embark on a fascinating journey of discovery as you delve into the history, culture, traditions, and achievements of the North Eastern states of India. Nestled amidst breathtaking landscapes and boasting a mosaic of vibrant cultures, the North East is often hailed as the 'Paradise Unexplored' of our country. We encourage you to shine a spotlight on the remarkable contributions of the North Eastern states to India's socio-cultural fabric, economic prosperity, and national identity. From their exquisite handicrafts and indigenous art forms to their delectable cuisines and vibrant festivals, the North Eastern states have left an indelible mark on the collective consciousness of our nation.

Watch any one of the following movies and be prepared for class discussion when school reopens.

- Anek: A political thriller movie set in North East India starring Ayushmann Khurrana.
- Loktak Lairembee: A movie based on the controversial Loktak lake Phumdi, a floating biomass clearance operation undertaken by the Manipur Government in 2011.
- Village Rockstar: A movie based on the daily rhythms of Das' native village of Chhaygaon.
- Nana: A Tale of Us: An award-winning Naga film by Tiakumzuk, which is also the first-ever film from Nagaland to make it to an International Film Festival.
- Scratches on Stone: A documentary examining how the state of Nagaland was formed.
- Yarwng: A feature film from Tripura that revolves around the large-scale displacement that took place in the state in the 1970s when the then newly-built Dumbur dam submerged huge areas of land in the fertile Raima valley.
- Orunasol Man: A superhero movie examining the rise in drug smuggling in Arunachal Pradesh.
- Aamis: The Ravening: An Assamese film that looks at the meat-eating practices of the region.
