VASANT VIHAR N.DELHI
HOLIDAY HOMEWORK
SESSION 2026-27
CLASS X

“Let us live with pride in our land, for it is rich in spirit and strength.”

—Subramania Bharati

Dear students

This summer, we're not just taking a break but celebrating who we are! Inspired by the spirit of 'Proud to be an Indian,' this year's holiday homework invites you to explore your identity, heritage, and responsibilities as a citizen. Let your thoughts, actions, and creativity reflect the pride of being an Indian and make a positive difference around you.

Here are some meaningful and engaging activities that you can do to make a difference-

Mindful Living in a Digital World

- Spend one hour every day without gadgets and engage in activities such as reading, sketching, exercising, gardening, or spending time with family. Reflect and record in your journal on how you felt.
- Reconnect with one offline hobby such as painting, music, cooking, journaling, sports, or craftwork and document your experience creatively.
- Organize a gadget-free family evening with indoor games, storytelling, or discussions and reflect on the importance of quality family time.
- Check out on Book My Show for events happening in your city. Watch a theatrical performance, classical dance, classical music performance. Paste some pictures of these performances that you watch in your journal.
- Visit museums in whichever city you are in during holidays. Click your picture while visiting and paste it in your journal.
- Bring online receipt/ ticket stubs of the museum, theatrical, dance/ music performance you attended and show it to your class teacher. This will secure you up to 5 marks.

● Suggested Reads -

1) You Are Born to Blossom – Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam .

An inspiring book that highlights Dr. Kalam's vision of a developed India through education, technology, creativity, and social responsibility

2)The Bankster – Ravi Subramanian .

A gripping thriller set in the world of banking and finance that explores mystery, corruption, ambition, and ethics through suspenseful twists and investigations.

Besides the above recommendations, some summer holiday tasks have been designed to equip you with a deep understanding of the requirements in each subject and assist you in being exam-ready.

(i) One objective-type paper of 40 marks each will be shared on GCR. It will include competency-based questions and general MCQs. These papers will be available for a fixed time. They have to be attempted between 10:30 am and 12:30 pm.

- a) They will be uploaded on GCR.

Task -1 ANALYTICAL PARAGRAPH

An analytical paragraph is a form of writing in which you examine, interpret, and explain information in a logical and structured manner. It requires you to study the given topic carefully, break it into parts, and present your ideas with suitable facts, observations, or evidence. In analytical writing, you are not merely describing the topic; instead, you are analysing it by identifying patterns, comparisons, causes, effects, trends, or key ideas and presenting your viewpoint clearly and coherently.

Refer to the guidelines and handouts shared on Google Classroom (GCR). Submission Submit the work duly done on punched sheets on Thursday, 2 July.

WHAT PIECES OF INFORMATION SHOULD WE CHECK ON ECO FRIENDLY PRODUCTS BEFORE BUYING THEM?

We live in a constantly evolving world that is becoming environmentally aware and making the conscious decision to switch to sustainable living. Irrespective of whether you have decided to go green to help the environment, or just adopting a different lifestyle, every step you take in the direction of eco-friendly living is one that helps the world.

However it is not always easy to identify if a product is truly eco-friendly just by looking at it.

“ Determining whether a product is eco-friendly or not isn’t always easy. You need to consider the complete life cycle of the item and look at the impact of each phase.
